Dear President Chu,

It is with great pleasure that I extend my warmest greetings and congratulations to the Committee of the 6th International Youth Culture Arts Festival on the occasion of its welcome celebration for the Festival Final Contest's Youth Talent Contestants.

Since its inception, the Committee of the International Youth Culture Arts Festival has been an invaluable asset to our community. The Committee of the International Youth Culture Arts Festival has continued to strengthen our community by providing members of our youth the opportunity to engage in, and explore, their rich cultural heritage. In addition to hosting cultural events, the Committee has proven to be instrumental in upholding the diverse cultural heritage and traditions of New York City.

Due to the dedication and commitment of the members of the Committee of the International Youth Culture Arts Festival, our community will continue to grow and develop in a positive direction.

On behalf of the New York State Assembly, I would like to congratulate the Committee of the 6th International Youth Culture Arts Festival for hosting the celebration for the Festival Final Contest's Youth Talent Contestants, and I wish for its continued success in all its endeavors.

Sincerely,

Ron Kim
